European Latin America Portal
Cooperation on the dissemination of Europe-wide research on Latin America

An information system specialising in European research in the Humanities and Social Sciences on Latin America.

The contents are supplied by institutions in the different countries of Europe which form part of REDIAL, the European network of libraries and archives (Red Europea de Información y Documentación sobre América Latina) and CEISAL, the corresponding network of research centres (Consejo Europeo de Investigaciones Sociales de América Latina).

It links to a specific section of an open archive which functions as an OAI repository.

Anuario Americanista Europeo

The Anuario Americanista Europeo is an OAS academic journal published jointly by CEISAL and REDIAL. Founded in 2003, it is devoted to European research and documentation on Latin America. Each issue is monographic and includes a section on sources, libraries and collections. From volume 6/7 2008/2009 it is published only in electronic form.

Special projects and new developments

Observatorio europeo del Bicentenario de las independencias latinoamericanas

2010 marks the Bicentenary of the start of the process which led the countries of Latin America towards Independence; for Mexico it is also the centenary of the Mexican Revolution. The Observatorio is focusing on European academic activities around these commemorations.

Versions of the portal in English and Portuguese

The interface of the portal will be made available in English and Portuguese in the course of 2010.

Search engine with keywords translated into five languages

The portal will have a search engine which will enable searching of the web pages of the member organisations in German, English, Spanish, French and Portuguese.
